CONCERNING THE MOST HOLY SACRAMENT OF THE EUCHARIST
FIRST DECREE

CHAPTER V:

On the cult and veneration to be shown to this most holy Sacrament.

Wherefore, there is no room left for doubt, that all the faithful of Christ may, according to the custom ever received in the Catholic Church, render in veneration the worship of latria, which is due to the true God, to this most holy sacrament. For not therefore is it the less to be adored on this account, that it was instituted by Christ, the Lord, in order to be received: for we believe that same God to be present therein, of whom the eternal Father, when introducing him into the world, says; And let all the angels of God adore him; whom the Magi falling down, adored; who, in fine, as the Scripture testifies, was adored by the apostles in Galilee.

The holy Synod declares, moreover, that very piously and religiously was this custom introduced into the Church, that this sublime and venerable sacrament be, with special veneration and solemnity, celebrated, every year, on a certain day, and that a festival; and that it be borne reverently and with honour in processions through the streets, and public places. For it is most just that there be certain appointed holy days, whereon all Christians may, with a special and unusual demonstration, testify that their minds are grateful and thankful to their common Lord and Redeemer for so ineffable and truly divine a benefit, whereby the victory and triumph of His death are represented. And so indeed did it behove victorious truth to celebrate a triumph over falsehood and heresy, that thus her adversaries, at the sight of so much splendor, and in the midst of so great joy of the universal Church, may either pine away weakened and broken; or, touched with shame and confounded, at length repent.

God Bless,
Father Raymond

St. Cecilia's Giving Bin for the Homeless

A BIG thank you to all who have donated to the Giving Bin! With the weather turning colder, could you please consider looking if you might have gently worn socks, gloves, warm hats, and blankets tucked away somewhere in your home?

Items of need could be put into a backpack such as toothbrushes, floss, soap, shampoo, etc. These would be helpful as well.

Let's remember... "You did it to Me!"

THANK-YOU to the Youngquist family for the donation of pumpkins from their HARVEST VALLEY FARMS for the Ministry Fair last weekend. Awesome harvest!

ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL MINISTRY FAIR!

Thank you to all participants and volunteers who helped make this Ministry Fair such a wonderful informational event. Extra special thanks to Kim Maloney and Tammy Geubelle for their never-ending creativeness and organizational skills!

Save the date: Sunday, October 27th
 From 1:00—4:00 pm in St. Cecilia Church.
 Stanwood High School Choirs will be hosting their yearly show. Come support our young people in their musical adventures.

ALL SOULS DAY CELEBRATION

St. Cecilia Parish will celebrate All Souls Day at the 9:00 am Mass on Saturday, November 2nd. Please complete the forms at the end of the pews and leave them in the box provided in the Social Hall. The names of your loved ones who passed away within the last year will be read during this Mass. A reception in the Parish Hall, sponsored by the Grief Ministry will follow the 9:00 am Mass.

The book of names of those who have died prior to the past year will be located in the Social Hall. This book will be placed on or near the altar during the entire month of November.

Be sure to join us for this special celebration. Members of the Grief Ministry will be available at the reception to listen to your stories about your loved ones and to give you additional information about the Grief Ministry here at St. Cecilia.

St. Cecilia Grief Ministry

Day of Recollection: October 12, 2019

Carmelite Institute of Spirituality Day of Recollection theme: "The Divine Love Story: Praying with St. Teresa of Avila."

Human beings are obsessed with love stories. The greatest love story, the one which the whole world was created for, is the love story between you and God. If our lives are the greatest love story ever told, then prayer is the communication between the two lovers—the communication between us and God. But prayer isn't always easy; like all relationships, it takes work. Br. John-Mary Winter, OCD, who is presently residing at Mount Angel, Oregon, will shed light on the importance of this divine communication and share some of Saint Teresa of Avila's practical tips for praying well on October 12th at 10 am.

The days starts with Mass at 9am in St. Cecilia Church. The presentation begins at 10am at the St. Teresa House, along with breaks and reflection period. Coffee, tea and snack are provided. Lunch is at noon (bring a sack lunch). The Carmelite Bookstore and Gift Shop will be open from 12-12:45pm. The day concludes with exposition of the Blessed Sacrament beginning at 1pm and concludes by 2pm.

? FILE FOR LIFE ?

What is this all about?

This is something new beginning in the area in conjunction with the Fire Stations consisting of all necessary personal information, medical information, medical insurance, just about everything paramedics need to know if there is an emergency at the home. The 5x9 inch card can be filled out and placed inside the magnetic pocket/pouch for the side/front of your refrigerator. Please stop by the parish office for your own card & magnetic pocket.

Called to Serve as Christ . . .
 A campaign for our Priests, Sisters and Family of Faith!

For all those who support LIFE, please join the Stanwood-Camano group this Sunday, October 6th from 2-3 pm for the National Life Chain.

We plan to meet at the Stanwood Park and Ride located at 88th Ave NW. We invite all to form a human chain so those people passing by will know we support HUMAN LIFE!

NOTICE:

Our bulletins will now be a condensed version printed by the parish office. Parishioners will still be able to find them on the parish website.
